[19] In the pilot episode of the show, Robert states "Everybody loves Raymond." [20] Rosenthal presented the show to CBS President Les Moonves, CBS Vice President David Himelfarb, CBS Comedy Development Director Wendi Goldstein, and CBS Comedy Development Head Gene Stein. [21] He held the show. very simple: A [Romano] and his family, and his parents live across the street with his brother. [22] CBS A was lukewarm towards the show's low concept, but found enough low-risk investment to make the series brighter with greenery. [23] Letterman's involvement with Raymond was nothing more than a meeting where he signed the contract of Rosenthal's show runner and told him, "just don't embarrass us". [24] Casting Patricia Heaton (left), Peter Boyle (center), and Doris Roberts (right) were in emotional states that reflected their characters during the auditions for Everybody Loves Raymond. The show reappears in India on the Romedy Now channel. The highest average rating¹ for the A series in italics. The full repertoire at Prime Time Network and cable TV shows 1946-Present (Ninth ed.).
